From Saturday January 21, to Tuesday January 24, 1786.

Westminster, January 24.

THIS Day His Majesty came to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes, seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to make the following most Gracious Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

SINCE I last met you in Parliament the Disputes which appeared to threaten an Interruption to the Tranquillity of Europe have been brought to an amicable Conclusion; and I continue to receive from Foreign Powers the strongest Assurances of their friendly Disposition towards this Country.

At Home My Subjects experience the growing Blessings of Peace in the Extension of Trade, the Improvement of the Revenue, and Increase of the Public Credit of the Nation.

For the farther Advancement of those important Objects, I rely on the Continuance of that Zeal and Industry which you manifested in the last Session of Parliament.

The Resolutions which you laid before Me, as the Basis of an Adjustment of the Commercial Intercourse between Great Britain and Ireland, have been, by My Direction, recommended to the Parliament of that Kingdom; but no effectual Step has hitherto been taken thereupon, which can enable you to make any farther Progress in that salutary Work.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have ordered the Estimates for the present Year to be laid before you: It is My earnest Wish to enforce Economy in every Department, and you will, I am persuaded, be equally ready to make such Provision as may be necessary for the Public Service, and particularly for maintaining our Naval Strength on the most secure and respectable Footing.—Above all, let Me recommend to you the Establishment of a fixed Plan for the Reduction of the National Debt.

The flourishing State of the Revenue will, I trust, enable you to effect this important Measure, with little Addition to the Public Burdens.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

The Vigour and Resources of the Country, so fully manifested in its present Situation, will encourage you in continuing to give your utmost Attention to every Object of National Concern; particularly to the Consideration of such Measures as may be necessary in order to give further Security to the Revenue, and to promote and extend, as far as possible, the Trade and general Industry of My Subjects.

St. James's, January 24.

This Morning Their Majesties came from Windsor to the Queen's Palace to reside during the Winter.

Their Royal Highnesses the Princes and Princesses are also removed from Windsor and Kew to their respective Residences in Town for the Winter Season.

Vienna, January 11.

The Emperor set out this Morning to meet his Sister the Archduchess, and the Duke of Saxe Teichen, and returned hither this Afternoon, accompanied by their Royal Highnesses, who arrived in perfect Health.

Whitehall, January 16, 1786.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, That on Saturday the 7th Instant, between the Hours of Ten and Eleven at Night, as Joseph Treacher, of the Parish of St. Olave Southwark, Farrier, was passing over St. George's Fields, he was met near the King's Arms Public House by Two Men, who attempted to rob him of his Watch, and, upon his refusing to deliver the same, one of them fired a Pistol at him, the Ball from which entered his Head, and he now lies dangerously ill in Consequence thereof.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person who fired the said Pistol, and wounded the said Joseph Treacher as abovementioned is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to, his Accomplice in the said Attempt, if he will surrender himself, and make such Discovery of the Person aforesaid, so that he may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SYDNEY.

And, as a further Encouragement, I do hereby promise a Reward of TWENTY POUNDS to be paid by me to the Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, on the Conviction of the said Offender.

S. Dendy,

Linen-Draper, Borough High-street.
